ALMA

Early Summer Events: V. R. Fr. Schultheis made his visitation of the Oregonian theologians, May 24-28.

Ordinations to sub-diaconate and diaconate took place at Menlo on June 13 and 14, after which the Oregonian ordinandi left for Spokane for ordination to the priesthood. The rest of the ordinandi received the priesthood on June 15 at the Cathedral in San Francisco and celebrated their first Masses at Alma on the following day. Arrangements for the day were capably directed by Mr. Schoeppe. Majors (June 18 - July 11) were very much enjoyed at the new villa at Applegate, with Fr. Plushkell as superior, aided by the new beadle, Mr. Beuzer (Ore.) and sub-beadle, Mr. Freitag (Ore.). The annual retreat (July 12 - 21) was given by Fr. Kelleher, who had been Socius when many of the theologians were at Los Gatos.

Visitors and Speakers: Fr. Savall, S. J., director of social work in Barcelona, arrived with a relic from the hand of St. Ignatius on July 30. This was the first time the relic had been out of Spain since 1621. Fr. Savall gave an exhortation to the community and later addressed the theologians on social and political conditions in Spain today.

On August 6 Fr. Rouleau spoke to the theologians on the Chinese rites question.

Mr. Bud Winter, track coach at San Jose State, gave a talk Sept. 7 describing his recent tour of the Far East under the auspices of the Olympic Committee, stressing his impressions concerning the Church in India and Burma.

On Aug. 26 Fr. Tichenor recounted the highlights of the South American tour of the USF basketball team.

Varia: Fr. Minister (A. Maginnis) pronounced his final vows on Aug. 15. The new Latin version of the psalms was inaugurated for litanies and graces on Aug. 2. Mr. Loyens (Ore.) became an American citizen on May 22. Schola Brevis, Sept. 11. House Picnic at Phelan Park Sept. 13.

EL RETIRO

Frs. O'Mara and Rooney attended the Conference of the National Catholic Laymen's Retreat League at Hartford, Conn., and visited several of our retreat houses en route.

Guest Retreat Masters during the summer have been Frs. Francis J. Curran, John R. Shepherd, Raphael McCarthy (Missouri) and William Ruggeri (N. O.). Fr. Savall blessed two groups of retreatants with the relic of St. Ignatius. The men were greatly appreciative of the privilege and deeply impressed by Father's conference, in the course of which he revealed something many of us had been ignorant of: that a nephew of St. Ignatius, Fray Martin Ignacio Loyola and two other Franciscans, members of the Unamuno party, went ashore near San Luis Obispo on Oct. 17, 1587. Father showed us the reference in the National Catholic Almanac (1953) p 133.

On St. Ignatius night a group of some 15 neighboring secular priests, along with Brothers of the Holy Cross and Maryknoll were our guests at dinner and enjoyed a delightful evening in our new recreation room "atop Pereira Hall".

Bro. Thomas McTigue pronounced his final vows on August 15th. Mass was celebrated at 8:00, followed by breakfast attended by some 80 invited guests.

Fr. F. Sheerin kindly drew up a list of books on scripture, dogma, moral and canon law which will make ours a good working library. These are now being accessioned.

The approach of the Lourdes grotto has been greatly improved by the erection of two wide and substantial stairways.

The response to our request for discarded jewelry, etc., far exceeded our expectations. As a consequence, a monstrance, ciborium and chalice will be made as remembrances of the Ignatian year.

A new retreat folder has just come off the press. Attractive in design with new photos, it will be gladly sent to any desiring information about El Retiro.

FRESNO

Summer School of Catholic Action.

An uneventful summer at the Seminary was broken quite dramatically by the arrival of the Summer School for Catholic Action during the week July 23rd-July 28th. With summer heat hitting its peak at 106 degrees, the faculty of eleven Jesuits presented its lay-action program at San Joaquin Memorial High School. The High school auditorium was used for morning Mass and general meetings, its cafeteria for lunch. But for smaller sessions, the Seminary arcades and classrooms afforded probably the best, because of the cooler atmosphere.

Fr. Louis Twomey of the New Orleans Province directed the School and sparked it with his keynote talks on "The Education of the Whole Man for Time and for Eternity". Fr. Francis Curran conducted courses entitled "Challenge to Catholic Men" and "The Mystical Body", and Fr. Joseph Howard, one course on "The Sodality Way of Life". The Most Rev. Aloysius J. Willinger, C. Ss. R., Bishop of the Monterey-

Fresno diocese, welcomed the Jesuits at a Catholic Action rally in the Municipal Auditorium. He expressed himself later as very pleased with the outcome of S. S. C. A. Obviously pleased, also, were the three hundred and fifty enrollees who crowded the sessions, and took an eager part (notably the boys) in both the traditional talent show and the barbecue at Roeding Park.

Back in Session. This September the Seminary welcomed twenty-nine new students, five of them for the college division and all but one of the others for freshman year of high school. All seminarians but the freshmen have private rooms in the dormitory wing, completed last March. The present student body total of fifty-four—an increase of twelve over September of 1955—promises a more lively year than ever in spirit, sports, and intellectual achievements. Ryan is also proud to see its first graduates, to the number of seven, starting their philosophy studies at St. John's Major Seminary, Camarillo, this fall.

MT. ST. MICHAELS

In the latter part of June, Fr. E. Lindekugel was read in as Rector. His former duties as Minister were taken over by Fr. Luger.

During the summer session Fr. Paul Henri, well-known Plotinian scholar, gave a course on God and the Early Greek Philosophers.

A fire engine has been added to the list of house vehicles. The fire crew is being trained by Mr. L. Day, who brings to his work a lot of experience gained in the army.

The new class of Californians arrived from Los Gatos on Aug. 29-30.

NOVITIATE

The Juniors went to Villa Joseph for Major Vacations from June 16 to July 3. Fr. John Kelly acted as Superior and Fr. Seeliger as Spiritual Father.

The House Retreat began on July 4 under the direction of Fr. Francis Rouleau.

Summer school commenced on July 14. Fr. Belval taught French; Fr. Harkin taught Greek and Fr. Kelly taught Latin.

A triduum of Masses and benedictions in honor of Our Holy Founder climaxed the Ignatian Year. Solemn High Mass was celebrated and solemn benediction given in the afternoon of the feast day of Saint Ignatius.

Fr. Joseph Savall of Barcelona, Spain, addressed the community on the purpose of his visit to the North American Assistancy. He brought with him, as a token of Spain's appreciation for the help received from America, a major relic of Saint Ignatius. After Father's talk the relic was venerated and then exposed for the day.

On the feast of Our Lady's Assumption, Fr. Kelly and Bro. John Olenik pronounced their last vows. On the same day Fr. George Yahn and Bros. Bailie, Beaudoin, Brook, Brown, Cassidy, Clemo, Foree, Frattini, Fulco, Lambers, Lounibos, McCormick, Olsen, Palofox, Pisani-Robin, Schmitt, Shinney and Tiernan pronounced the first vows of the Society.

Fr. Mifsud has returned to the Province after a twenty-three years residence at our college in Bagdad, Iraq. He will remain at the Novitiate for four months.

Bro. James McCormick underwent surgery for a hernia on Sept. 13.

SANTA CLARA

Campus takes on new look—Among the extensive improvements made on the campus during the summer months, were: the removal of the old bougainvillea vine from the Faculty Residence; the sand-blasting and stuccoing of both O'Connor Hall and the Faculty Bldg.; the resurfacing of the tennis courts; the remodeling of the Fathers' Recreation Room; the installing of an acoustical ceiling in the Fathers' Refectory and the renovation of the foyer in the Alumni Science Bldg. into Faculty offices.

On Campus Retreats—The annual Retreat for the Coadjutor Brothers (25 Brothers and 7 Scholastics) conducted by Fr. E. McDermott was held Aug. 7th to 14th and the Retreat for the Scholastics (120 Scholastics, Fathers and Brothers) from Aug. 22nd to 31st. Fr. Marion acted as Retreat Master.

Status Changes—New faces to be seen on the campus during the coming year include amongst the Fathers, A. Mei, (Dean of Faculties), C. McQuillan, (Sub. Min.), A. Tait, W. Cahill, A. Rutledge, W. Schmidt and J. O'Connell. The Scholastics are G. Phelan, J. Seiquist and T. Wright.

Summer School Assignments—Frs. P. Donohoe, L. Bannan and T. Flynn taught at Loyola University Summer School. Fr. A. Fagothey conducted a course in Ethics and Metaphysics at Gonzaga University and also gave a ten-day course on some problems of Special Ethics to the Ursuline Sisters of Santa Rosa. Fr. J. Martin gave a six-weeks course on the Life of Christ to 22 postulants and novices of the Good Shepherd Order in Los Angeles.

Summer Supply Work—Besides the usual Sunday Supply work, many Fathers assisted Parish Priests at distant points for month long periods, as, Frs. W. Aldridge at Tule Lake; J. Diebels, Quincy; V. O'Sullivan, Newark and San Diego; T. Flynn, Arcata; W. Shepherd, Los Banos and Riverdale; R. Roberts, Mt. La Salle; W. Crowley, O'Connor Hospital and R. McAuliffe at Larkspur.

Scholarship Commission—Fr. President (H. Hauck), as member of the California State Scholarship Commission, attended meetings in San Francisco, June 26th. and Los Angeles, July 23rd. As member of the Constitution Committee of Western College Assn. Fr. Hauck met for a day's discussion at California Polytechnic College, San Luis Obispo, July 14th. Fr. Hauck was recently elected Vice President of the "California Independent Colleges Foundation, Inc." a fund raising association of Bay Area Colleges.

Advisory Council—During the summer, several meetings of the "University of Santa Clara Advisory Council" were held with Fr. W. Gianera as University representative. The Council is composed of 25 business and industrial leaders whose aims are community service and support.

On-Campus Meetings—The Academic Vice-Presidents and Province Deans held a three day conference on campus, July 13-16th.

A three-day conference of Knights of Columbus Squires and Directors was held June 23-25th.

Santa Clara played host to six American Legion baseball teams during the Annual Play-off Series, July 4th-8th.

Planning activities for the coming year some 20 Student Officers attended a two-day meeting, under the direction of Fr. R. Kelley, Sept. 10-12th.

The Annual Fall meeting of the University Faculty was held in the Art Gallery Sept. 11th, followed by dinner in the Fathers' Dining Hall.

The increased Faculty brings 5 added Doctorates to the University roster.

Varia—At the 15th Commencement Exercises held in the Mission Gardens June 9th, 200 students received their degrees and 82 R.O.T.C. Cadets were commissioned in the U. S. Army.

The first portion of the Ford Foundation Grant for Faculty Salaries Endowment ($165,000.00) was recently received by the University.

Fr. B. Hubbard, who suffered a stroke while on a lecture tour several months ago, celebrated his first Mass since his stroke in the Domestic Chapel, Aug. 15th. He was assisted by Fr. H. Strehl.

Of the 13 vocations to the priesthood amongst the students, 10 have entered Jesuit Novitiates. Eight (8) enrolled at Los Gatos, Aug. 14th, and two (2) joined the Oregon Province at Sheridan.

Fr. R. Kelley represented Santa Clara at Fort Lewis R.O.T.C. summer camp on July 27th.

The Community received a blessing with the relic of St. Ignatius brought from Spain by Fr. Savall, Aug. 3rd.

A new Audio-Visual Dept. (Varsi Library) has been inaugurated and is located in the basement of O'Connor Hall.

The Catala Club Scholarship Fund was augmented by the presence of over 1,400 women attending the Annual Fashion Show in the Mission Gardens, Aug. 22nd.

Frosh registration and orientation were held on the Santa Clara and Santa Cruz Campuses—Sept. 13-16th. An enrollment of 335 Freshmen showed an increase of 74 over the number enrolled at this time last year.

VARIA

After an absence of more than twelve years, Fr. Stern returned to the City and County Hospital in San Francisco to bless a new tabernacle.

nacle in the chapel on Sept. 9. It was most fitting that he be called in for such an occasion. Over a period of 22 years, on 24-hour call, he met single-handed the endless and varied demands made on a chaplain in so large an institution. It was due to his spirit that the chapel was built on the hospital grounds and administered by a resident Catholic chaplain. His blessing of the tabernacle, a permanent fixture enshrining the Source of grace, is an apt symbol of the lasting benediction his presence in the hospital has meant to so many thousands of patients over so long a period of years.

A commendatory article concerning Fr. E. Hogan (Miss.) of Loyola University in Los Angeles appeared in the Register. The write-up describes how Fr. Hogan, trapped in his car in the recent wreck of the Santa Fe, escaped by breaking the window with a sledge hammer and, though suffering shock from injuries sustained, began at once a long task of administering to the critical cases among the passengers.
